

I do not believe it would be wise to take spectrum away from a radio service that uses it for emergency communications. The HF spectrum also provides a ready means of handling urgent traffic.